DAVIS' INDIANA DIGEST.

DIGEST OF THE DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME Court of the State of Indiana, comprising the cases rted in the eight volumes of blackford and the first sixteen volumes of Indiana Reports; together with the Revised Statutes of the State, as embedie in the edition of Gavin & Hord. By Edwin A. Davis, L. L. B. 1 vol.

The first edition of this valuable work was completely e hausted in less than three months from the time of publication. A new edition, printed on fine white paper, is now ready. This is one of the most complete and best arranged digests ever published, and has received the highest commendations of the legal profession. The Hon. M. M. RAY say .: "The Digest is as rare in its plan and execution as it is useful to the profession. This is no abridgement of the Reports but a genuine digest of them." The Hon. DAVID McDonald says: "It is no small commendation of the work that it is a Digest not only of all our Supreme Court decisions which have be n published, but also of all the modern statutes

WANTED.

AGENTS CONSTANTLY WANTER

WANT INDUSTRIOUS AND ACTIVE MEN TO Medicines with every family. I am employing agents to canvass, on foot, at $300, and with horse and buggy, $350 per year. Agents are required to furnish horses In addition to the above salary, I defray all expenses incident to the business. It is an agreeable and healthful occupation for young men, giving them a good epportunity to make money without the possibility of sustaining loss accruing from selling on commission.

Applicants should apply in person, or address (if further information be desired) the proprietor, by letter.

No one will be employed for a less term than one year and will enter into a written contract to that effect. I shall require security, in all cases, if I am not per-sonally acquainted with the applicant, as I shall intrust in his custody money, medicines, books and receipts to the amount of from $500 to $3,000.
